

Bell Ringer - Complete the Graphic Organizer on the United States Federal Government

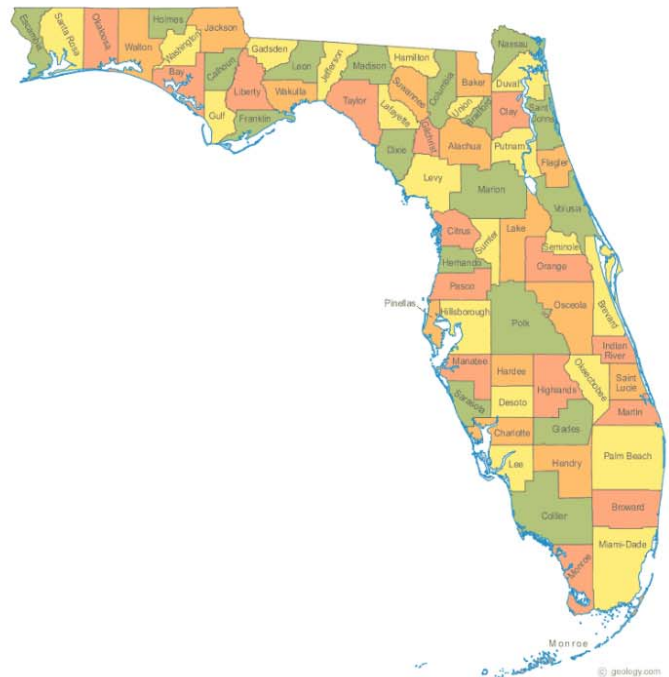

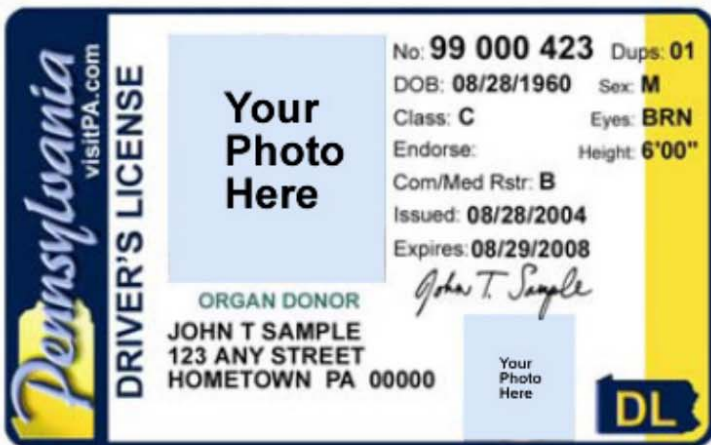

Define:

- Constitution
- Federal Government
- State Government

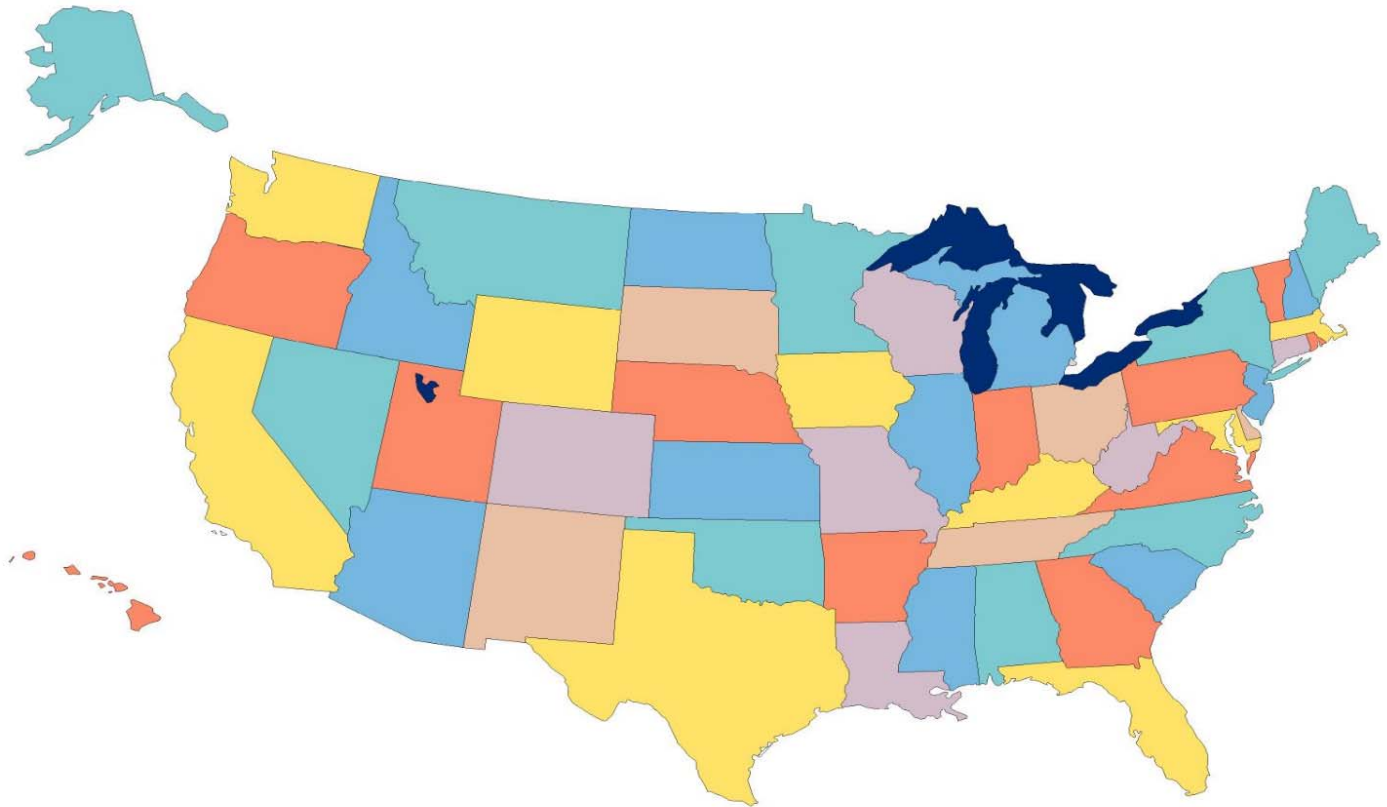

How old do you have to be in PA in order to drive?

How old do you have to be to drive in FL?

Why are they different?

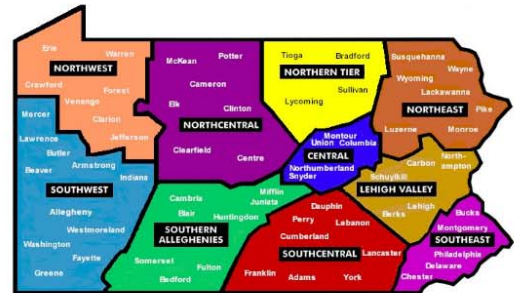

Just as our country separates the powers to each Branch of the government, it also separates the powers between the nation and the states.

This separation of powers between states and the federal government is called Federalism.

What type of powers do you think the state has?
(In other words, what is the state in charge of that the federal government is not?)

What type of powers do you think the federal government has? (In other words, what is the federal government in charge of that the state is not?)

The differences between the National Government and the State Government

National Government

State Government

Federal

or

State

Print Money $$

Issue a license

Conduct Elections

Declare War

Fixing Highways

Establish local governments

Establish Army

Build/ Remove Post Offices

Federalism Activity

