

Lets review... Europe

See how many European countries you can list on this Acrostic Puzzle. Try to NOT use your maps first. Then, if needed, use your maps to help you.

G

E

O

G

R

A

P

H

Y

Lets review... Europe

Some people call Europe "The Peninsula of peninsulas."

What does this mean?

Classical Europe - Greece

✓OTE

Where in the world is Greece?

Google
Earth!

Why start with Greece?

Greece is the birthplace of DEMOCRACY

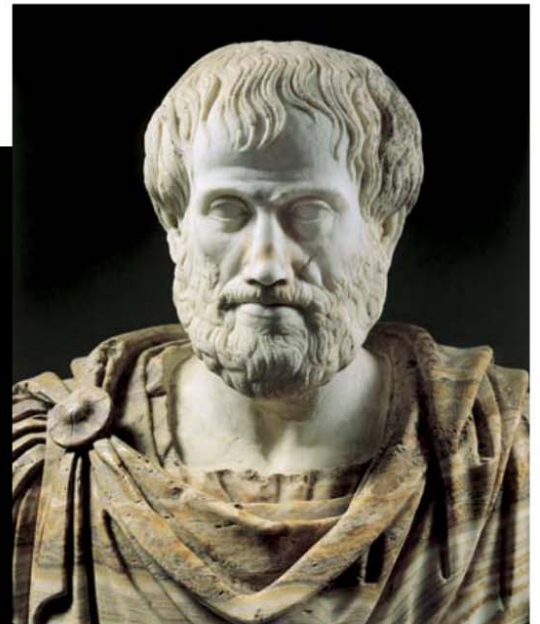

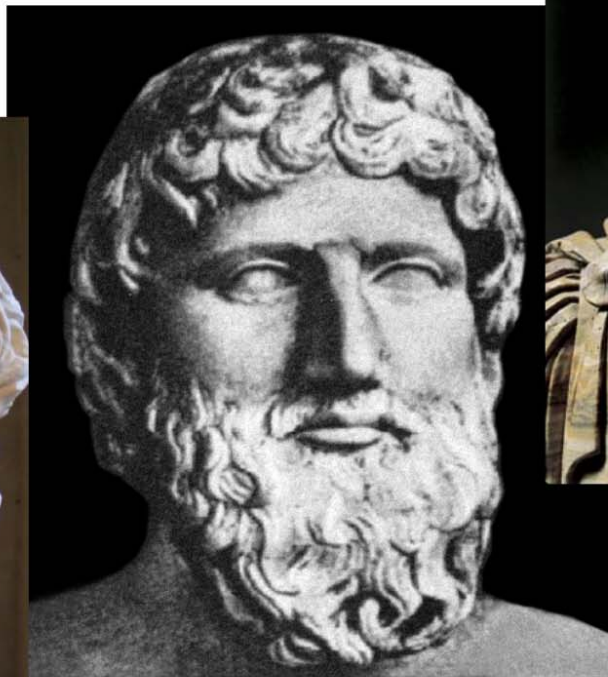

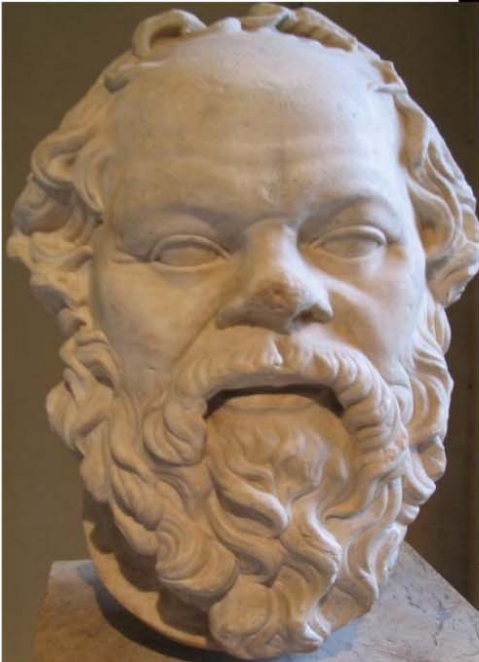

This started in the capital city - Athens

Look at page 236: (OUR WORLD TODAY)

Who were Socrates, Plato, and Aristotle?

What does "Philosophy" mean?

A conversation with Socrates..

Socrates asked questions like...

Why are you saying that?

What exactly does this mean?

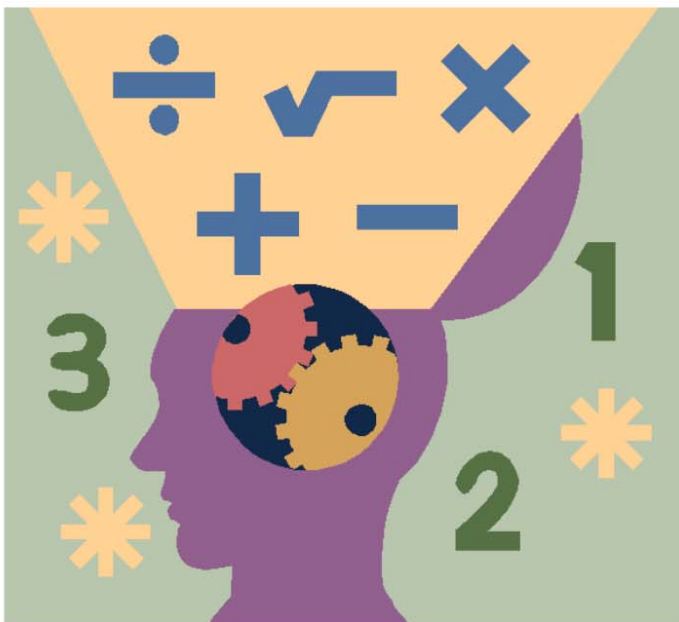

What else could we assume?

How can I be sure of what you are saying?

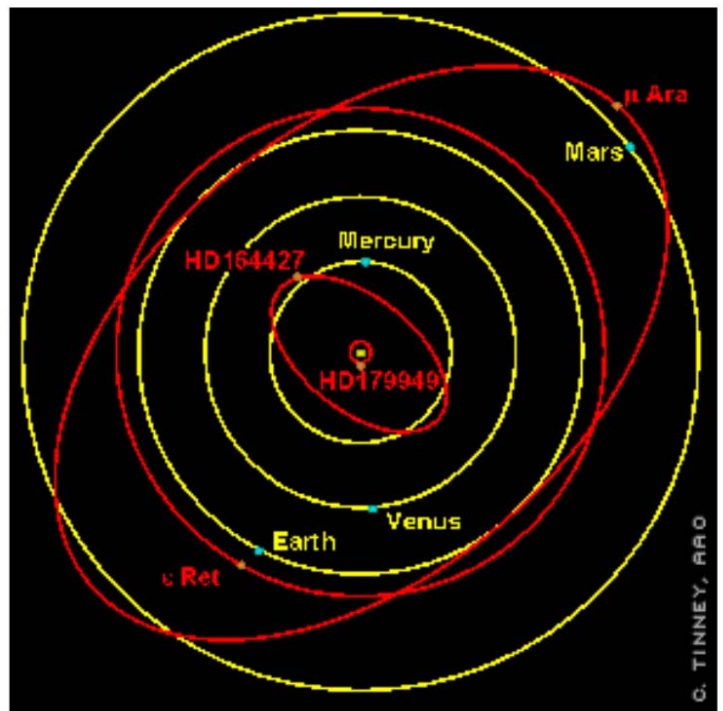

Activity: Role Play - Socrates
I will be an example with a volunteer

Plato And Aristotle

Mathematicians

Sought to learn about sciences

Conflict between Greek City-States

pg. 237 - Why were Athens and Sparta fighting? (OWT)

Who ultimately won?

What did the war do to the Greek culture overall?

The war between Athens and Greece ultimately weakened Greece overall.

(OWT)

This left the door open for Alexander the Great. (pg. 237)

How did Alexander the Great conquer Greece?
How did he end up spreading Greek culture?

Check for Understanding...

3

X

3

X

3