

North and South Korea

The Korea's make a peninsula. What is a peninsula?

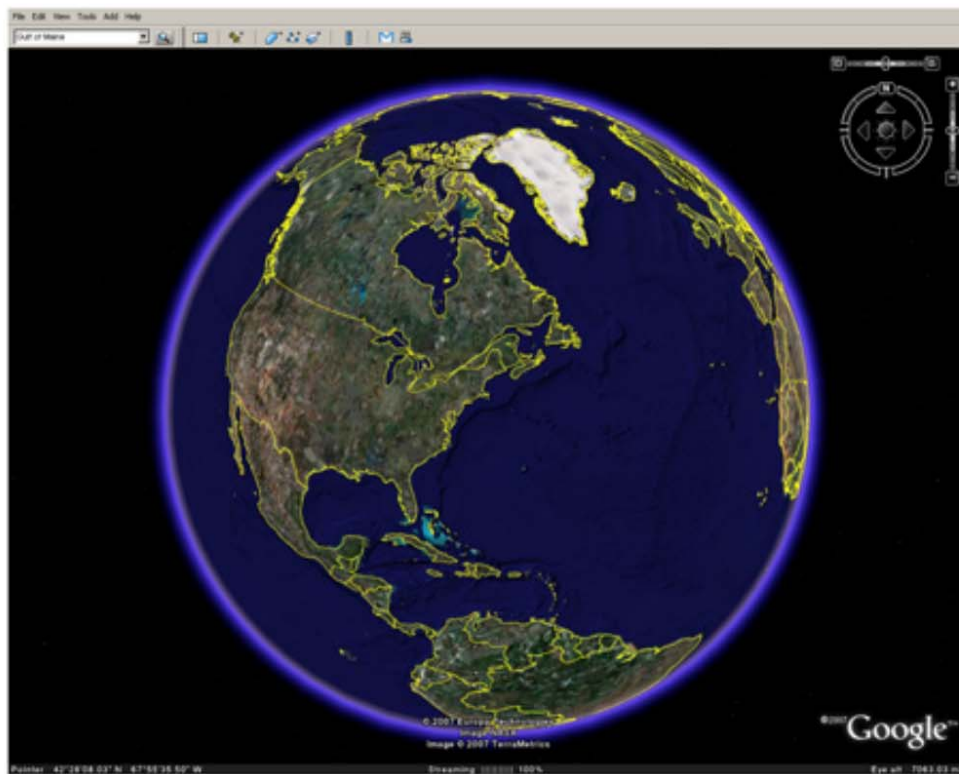

Korean Peninsula

What bodies of water surround the peninsula?

What other places are peninsulas?

After looking at Google Earth - Is Korea more to the east or more to the west of the United States?

Korea is divided into a "North" and "South", but it was not always this way.

Pg. 589 "Korean Culture"

Who did Korea adapt most of its culture from?

What has influenced Korean Culture?

What advancements did Korea make for hundreds of years?

Korean Language - Hangul

Total - 28 symbols.

Take a few minutes and try to develop a sentence using only a few symbols.

Try only using 10 symbols.

We will then interpret each others sentences.

Early 1900's, Japanese conquer Korea. This is the last time Korea would remain as one.

After WWII, Korea was split into "North" and "South".

North
Communist
Controlled by Soviet Union

South
Noncommunist
Controlled by
United States

Split at the 38th parallel - which means...?

The beginning of the Korean War...

North Korea attacks South Korea and almost takes over the ENTIRE country

Class Activity - Example of Split

Our class is going to be split into East and West.

Eastern side = Communist Western Side = Democracy

Each side must come up with an example of how they will best represent their communist/ democratic government.

Each side must also come up with a list (THINK) of what might make their form of government better than the other

AND...

What might make their form of government worse than the other.

Write lists on back wall