

The Industrial Revolution...

Time period when people used _____ and new methods to increase _____.

Productivity - measure of how much _____ can be done in a certain amount of time.

Changed the _____ and the way it functions.

The industrial revolution started in _____.

Why did it start here?

1. Great Britain had _____
(examples: coal and iron)
2. Great Britain had _____
(examples: wool)
3. Great Britain had _____
(This was people who could work the machines.)

The first industry to be moved to factories was _____, (woven cloth, clothing).

What happened to the price of these items (clothes) because there was more of them being produced?

List some new inventions of the industrial revolution:

Complete the t- chart of positive and negative effects of the industrial revolution

Positive	Negative

At first – the industrial revolution was hard on workers, including women and children.
Children might be expected to work _____ hours a day!

Union - organization that represents _____ for better working conditions, higher _____, and a _____ working day.

Could threaten to _____ if feel being treated unfair or employer will not meet demands.

Strike - everyone in union refuses to _____.

