What are some problems with population growth?

How does this affect where people live?

What does it mean to say that some things "push" people to some places while others "pull"?

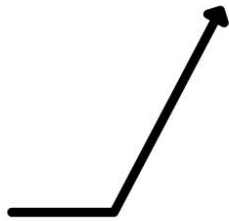

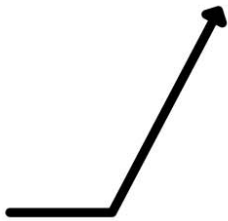

PUSH

PULL

Some places "pull" or "push" people there because they provide a better life.

Textbook Page 75. Types of Migration

Refugees

Migration

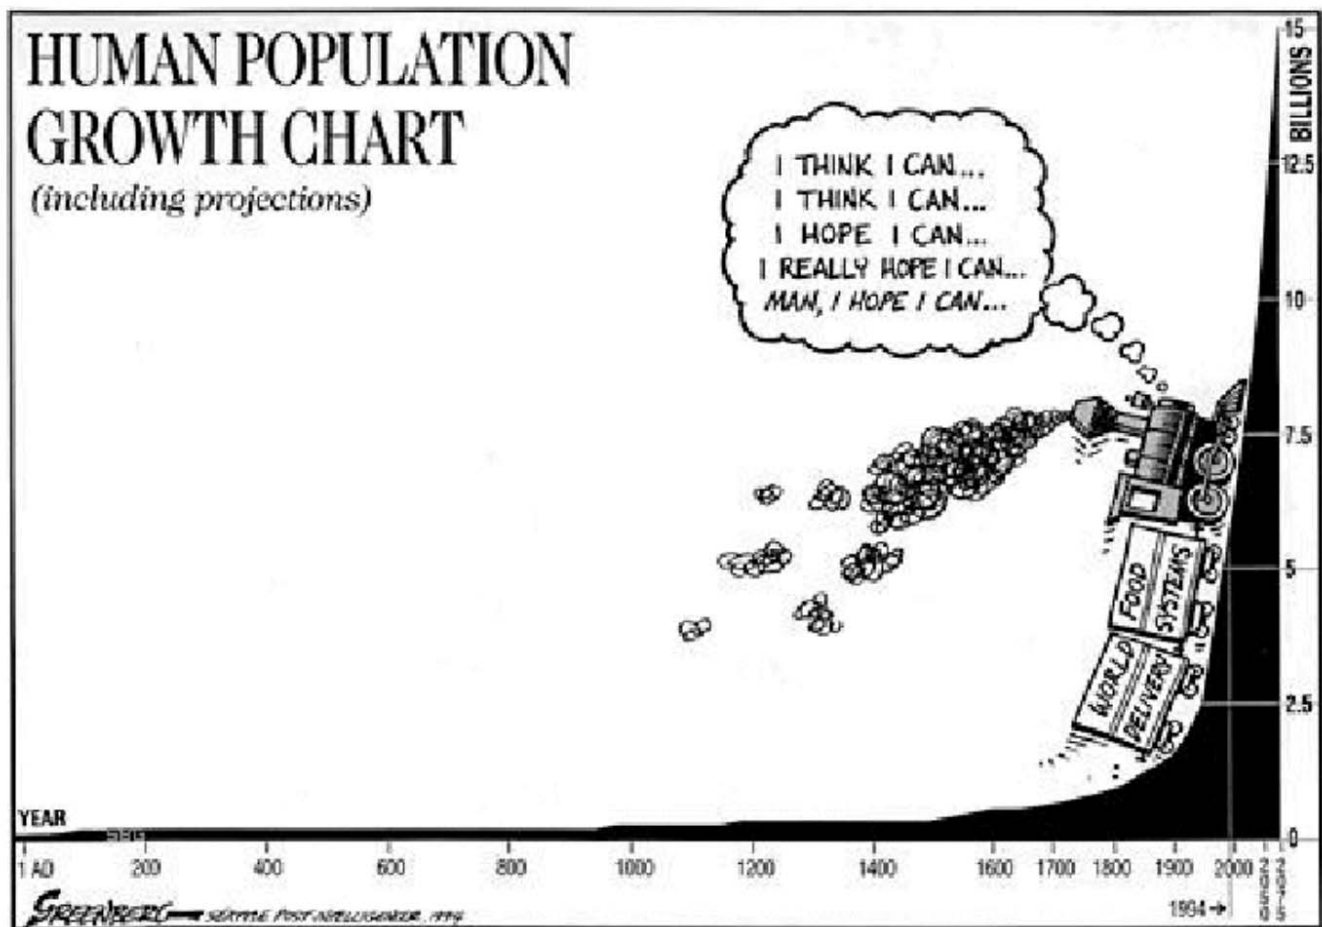

To Move

More people leave villages/ farms and move to city

People who are forced to leave homeland due to wars or unjust government

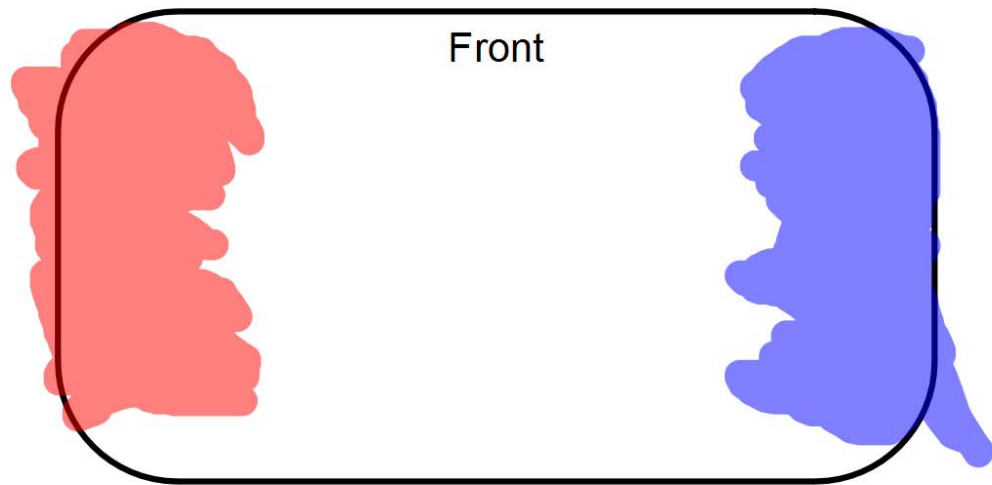

What is the most common reason people move to cities from rural areas?

According to the political cartoon, why is rapid population growth a problem for so many countries?

Activity:

1. I will give you a card with information on it.
2. You decide if what is on the card would cause you to leave, "pushing you away", or if it would be something that would "pull" you towards that country.
3. If you believe what is on your card is "pushing" you to another country, go to the right side of the room.
If you believe what is on your card would "pull" you towards another country, go to the left side of the room.

The population is increasing.
People are moving.
Needs are growing.

Where (what country) are the following things from?

Your shoes

Your play station/ video games

Your parents car

Oil for gasoline

INTERDEPENDENCE

influenced by migration and global interdependence

Homework:

Ask someone, (any adult, could be a teacher, parent, or friend), what do you think is unique about Altoona's culture?

Write down answer and bring to class tomorrow for credit.

Must have more than "its unique" etc.
